Foundation Course in Human Rights

Syllabus

FOUNDATION COURSE ON HUMAN RIGHTS AND DUTIES AT UNDER-GRADUATE LEVEL

Objective:

Foundation Course, as its title suggests, aims to impart to the undergraduate students a general idea of the principal aspects of human rights and duties in a broad sweep. The aspects addressed by 6 units of instructions include the values of human rights and duties, philosophical and historical foundations, basic international human rights norms, the normative and institutional mechanism of human rights and duties in India, and Indian societal problems. The Committee also realized the importance of highlighting the need for internalizing Human Rights and Duties values. And, therefore, it felt that it was necessary not only to sensitize the students of Human Rights and Duties but also to ensure that both teachers and the taught practice and cherish the values of Rights and Duties and make all endeavours to live up to those ideals. The duration of the course and the number of classes allocated to cover the course will determine how intensively/extensively the teacher can impart instructions on these aspects of human rights and duties.

Course Content

1. CONCEPTUAL BACKGROUND OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND DUTIES

- (i) Rights : inherent, inalienable, universal, indivisible
- (ii) Values : Dignity, liberty, equality, justice, unity in diversity
- (iii) Need for balance between Rights and Duties, Freedom and Responsibility
